Welcome to

King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang (KMITL). We are delighted that you have chosen to study at our institution, and we look forward to meeting you at our university soon.

You are on the verge of embarking on an exciting and life-changing adventure. Studying at university away from home offers the opportunity to form a new community of friends, broaden your horizons and gain invaluable academic and life experience.

Studying abroad can be incredibly exciting but, at times, also challenging. The intent of this guide is, not only to give you more information about our university but also to provide you with answers to some of the practical questions you may have about living and studying on our campus.

The Office of International Affairs (OIA) is here to coordinate with and provide support to international students. Feel free to contact us with any questions regarding the content of this guide as well as any queries you may have about living and studying at KMITL.

We appreciate the contribution that you, as an international student, make in enriching the experience of all students and staff by helping KMITL in becoming a truly multicultural and global university.

We wish you a safe trip and look forward to welcoming you to KMITL.

KMITL is recognized as one of the leading pioneers in science and technology education in Thailand. We provide our students with innovative and highly competitive academic programs which integrate cooperative training with leading industrial partners and overseas training.

KMITL has an outstanding record of more than 90% graduate employability each academic year.

KMITL has raised the bar for science and technology specialization in the region by producing more than 100,000 highly sought-after, enthusiastic and proficient engineers, technologists, and scientists.

Visa

Student Visa is a general visa for those who are studying or taking courses in Thailand, it is just one type of visa but can be classified into two:

Those who are enrolled and taking classes in Language Schools or Vocational Courses.

Those who are enrolled in International schools or pursuing their degrees in Colleges or Universities.

VISA

How to apply for a student visa:

You can apply for one at a Royal Thai Embassy overseas or convert your visa to a student visa at the Thai Immigration Bureau, but your visa should have at least 15 days left before its expiry date to convert it.

Requirements for the Thai Student Visa Application

Personal documents from applicant:

- T.M. 7 Application form
- Passport valid for at least 6 months or more
- TM. 6 Departure Card
- Two (2) photographs size 4x6 cm.

- To study at a government university or lower level
- A recommendation letter from the dean (or higher) of your university or from the director of a lower level academic institute for a visa or visa status alteration.
- A recommendation letter from the relevant department approved by the Ministry of Education in the case of an academic institute of lower level than university or from the office of educational services for a visa or visa status alteration.
- A copy of the applicant's academic record (with the latest tuition fee receipt).

Non-Imm ED Visa

Applying from a Royal Thai Embassy overseas

Converting Visa to a Student Visa at The Thai Immigration Bureau

How to check your visa expiry date:

The “Thai Student Visa” or “Non-Immigrant ED” Visa is valid for 3 months when first applying at a Royal Thai Embassy overseas or when converting it at the Thai Immigration Bureau, but it can be extended for 1-year at the Immigration Bureau.

VISA

How to extend your visa:

1 month before VISA expires

Submit your passport, education evidence, TM.30 and contact your faculty or college.

The faculty or college will take the process to The office of International Affairs (OIA).

OIA sends completed documents to extend your visa back to your faculty or college.

Students pick up their completed documents at their faculty or college.

Students gather all required documents to extend visa and go to the Immigration Bureau.

Notification of staying in Thailand over 90 days

Foreigners who stay or plan to stay in Thailand over 90 days must notify your residence to the Immigration Office within 90 days through the following methods:

The Foreigner can make the notification in person, by registered mail or online by scanning this QR code link:

VISA Extension

Documents Required

- Application form (T. M.)
- Passport and Copy of passport
- T. M. 6 Departure card and copy
- Photo 3-5 cm. X 4.5 cm.
- 1,900 baht fee
- Letter for an extension of stay from KMITL
- Educational evidence (such as a copy of your transcript, the certificate of admission or a student ID card)
- TM. 30 with the immigration signature and stamp

Note: A fine of 500 Baht per day will be applied if a visa extension does not meet the expiry date deadline

Khao Gaeng restaurants, you get to see all the Thai dishes that are available and choose to eat what looks the best... but sometimes it can be challenging to make a decision.

Thai Food

How to order...

Order on top of rice, or full plates at a Khao gaeng restaurant in Thailand, you can order either Rad khao or Gap khao.

Rad khao means that you will get a plate of rice, and then choose 2 - 3 different curries that will be placed right on top of your rice.

Gap khao means that you order a couple of dishes that come on full plates, and you order a plate of rice apart.

Thai Food

If you order Gap khao, of course.. more expensive because you get more food! Traditionally, Gap khao entries are shared among everyone at the table, with a middle spoon of course, while everyone has a serving of rice to themselves (not shared).

However, there is really no rule to this, so - enjoy the best place to dine in the world as you see fit, within good boundaries.
